Description

The Mi Box S is one of the most versatile Android TV box around. It supports the latest and greatest video technology of up to 4K UltraHD with HDR enabled. It comes with a USB port to allow you to connect an external keyboard and mouse and use that to browse the web. The Mi Box S also comes with Chromecast built in allowing you to beam the contents of your screen wirelessly to the TV. Another nifty feature is app continuity where if you were watching a video on YouTube or Facebook on your phone or tablet you can click a button and the video continues to play on the TV. Audio is fantastic as well, you have Dolby Support for the most immersive sound experience no matter what you are watching. With Google Assistant built in you are able to search for shows with just your voice.
