Description

The Xiaomi Mi Play is for those with an active lifestyle. Need to keep up with social media? Stay connected for long and be ready to capture life's best moments? The Mi Play has the features and performance to make sure you can do all that and more. It's the perfect accessory for that fast paced active lifestyle complete with a pocket friendly price.

Specifications

The Xiaomi Mi Play is for those young at heart. It has a big, sharp edge-to-edge display for viewing photos and videos or getting the most out of your social media. The 4GB of RAM couple with a healthy 64GB of storage means you can have all the apps you could desire and not worry about the phone slowing down or running out of memory. The generous battery means you are connected for a whole day with no interruptions and a dual camera on the back captures that perfect photo every time.
